

Ruggero Bodo

Ruggero Bodo has 25 years of work experience as senior executive in multinational corporations like Pirelli, Philips, Whirlpool ending his career with the role of Director and Vice President at the European Headquarters of a big industrial group. When he retired, he participated for two tenures in the Presidential Committee of Anie Federation of Confindustria. Since 1995 founding member and volunteer consultant of Fondazione Sodalitas, he has been several times in its Steering Committee and in the Board of Directors of CSR Europe, the privileged interlocutor of the European Commission for CSR. Since 2007 he has coordinated Sodalitas Diversity projects and since 2009 he is participating in the Secretariat of the Italian Charter for Equal Opportunities and Treatment at the Workplace, including the responsibility for promoting its Development in the Convergence Regions 2011 – 12, , FSE, CIG 2585116933.

In 2013 he coordinated for Italy the first Edition of the “European CSR Award for Partnerships”, promoted by the European Commission .